344	Stellenbosch Triplet 1998 Stellenzicht A blend of the Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Merlot. Hence the unappetising porcine name, however it is delicious wine.	£18.90	£14.00
327	Château Cenac 1999 Cuvee Prestige Cahors  Deep cassis fruit with chocolate overtones perfect with game. Extremely well made. Gold medal winner.	£24.00	£16.90
356	Saint Amour 1999 Domaine des Ducs The most Northerly Beaujolais Cru. This is true red Beaujolais and a wonderful example of what can be achieved with the Gamay grape. Tantalising seductive red and black fruit extraction and surprising length.	£26.50	£19.50
322	Gigondas 1993 Domaine Du Pradas  Medium bodied, soft and spicy old favourite. Drinking perfectly now.	£29.50	£22.50
324	Château Les Clausots 1998 Graves, Bronze Medal Winner Must be decanted to open up and when done, is well worth the trouble. Rich and spicy with a soft lingering finish. Perfect snail wine.	£25.00	£19.50
311	Château le Crock 1995 Cru Bourgeois, St-Estèphe Upfront voluptuous easy drinking Claret of substance and distinction.	£39.50	£31.50
357	Château Branaire Ducru 1997 4<sup>ème</sup> Grand Cru Classé, St. Julien  Very classical and drinking beautifully now. Soft and luscious deep fruit and firm opulent structure. Outstanding value!	£49.50	£38.50
309	Château la Lagune 1982 3<sup>ème</sup> Grand Cru Classé, Medoc As close to perfection as one could hope for La Lagune. Bin end, one remaining bottle only! Decanting recommended.	£125.00	£99.00
361	Gevrey-Chambertin 1999 Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Gérard Seguin Very concentrated elegant Pinot Noir of considerable charm. Decanting recommended.	£45.00	£35.00

346	Rueda Superior 2000 Marques de Riscal Three hours drive south-west of Rioja, delicious, fresh, fruity, crisp and vibrant. Grapes 85% Verdejo and 15% Viura.	£16.90	£12.90
332	Menetou-Salon 1998 Jean-Max Roger Magnificent gooseberry nose, clean refreshing floral fruit, and an elegant honeyed crisp finish.	£24.50	£16.90
349	Goldwater Dogpoint Sauvignon Blanc 2000 Marlborough, New Zealand  The nose ensures value for money even if you are unable to drink the wine. Is it as good as good as Cloudy Bay? Opinions gratefully received.	£26.50	£19.90
308	Nobilo Chardonnay Reserve 1995 Tietjen Vineyard, New Zealand Smart, sophisticated Burgundian style New world Chardonnay with a wonderful nose and gentle, elegant, mature fruit flavours and a long finish. Do not drink "ice" cold and allow time in the glass for the wine to develop.	£27.50	£19.90
375	Sancerre 2000 Les Baronnes, Henri Bourgeois Definitive Sancerre from a great grower – displaying weight and richness whilst still being crisp and dry.	£29.50	£22.50
335	Saint Aubin 1<sup>er</sup> Cru 1998 "Le Champlot", Sylvain Langoureau  This vineyard is literally, bang next door to Chassagne and Puligny Montrachet. Highly intelligent and totally delicious white Burgundy.	£37.50	£28.50
325	Georges Gardet 1990 Chigny-les-Roses, Champagne  In a tasting organised by Clive Coats in 1988 of the best of the Grand Marques 79's the George Gardet came second to the Krug 1979. The quality remains consistently superb and the wine is made for aging; Perfect now! Great with food.	£59.00	£42.50
